Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurMarosham has been defeated but his life force still lives on locked up in the head of Yorda. The hero of The Prophecy must now come to terms with the new abilities he has received from the Black Elf, Marosham. To do this he seeks out the advice of the Spellweaver, Rimanathon, who has been placed on the world by the Helanth a group of gods who have created this world.While he is there a new force enters the world: The General, also known as 'the Killer of Worlds' has turned his eye to Yorda's world and is determined to make this his next target. His aim is not to conquer the people of this world but to totally destroy all life there. Destroyer is book two in the Yorda's Story trilogy. It takes you along at breakneck speed, where the action does not stop, to a totally unexpected ending which answers many questions from book one but leaves us with a further set to ponder on.
