Description : Description du produitAll of the tales by the master of the detective and the macabre story. 53 of his best-known poems plus essays and criticisms.

Prsentation de l'diteurVolume one of his complete works in five volumes from one of the leaders of the American Romantics. Macabre parties in isolated castles Gruesome bestial murders Talking ravens, hellish black pits, innocents buried alive Prepare to be chilled and enthralled by the haunting genius of the acknowledged master of gothic horror and suspense, Edgar Allan Poe. The stories and poems in this complete anthology probe to the depths of the human psyche and include the infamous and arguably the first ever detective story Murders in the Rue Morgue; the disturbing classic, The Fall of the House of Usher and the horrifyingly claustrophobic, The Pit and the Pendulum. The perfect bedtime read for the daring and the brave. (non illustrated) Extrait Alone From childhood's hour I have not been As others were; I have not seen As others saw; I could not bring My passions from a common spring. From the same source I have not taken My sorrow; I could not awaken My heart to joy at the same tone; And all I loved, I loved alone. Then- in my childhood, in the dawn Of a most stormy life- was drawn From every depth of good and ill The mystery which binds me still: From the torrent, or the fountain, From the red cliff of the mountain, From the sun that round me rolled In its autumn tint of gold, From the lightning in the sky As it passed me flying by, From the thunder and the storm, And the cloud that took the form (When the rest of Heaven was blue) Of a demon in my view.
